DDCI referred to an Agency notice concerning the William J. Donovan dinner where an award will be presented to former President Eisenhower. Agency policy is to neither encourage nor discourage attendance by Agency employees. It was noted that those interested in attending should make arrangements with Houston.

In answer to DDCI inquiry, 11 November was described as a holiday with Agency staffing as is customary on Sundays.

DCI inquired about the status of efforts to arrange a meeting with Henry Kissinger. It was reported that Kissinger is due to arrive in Boston today and work to arrange a meeting is in process.

DCI noted that he will be meeting with Ambassador Anderson from Portugal.

ACTIONS:

3. DCI referred to use of photographs as a means of providing more interest to country handbooks produced within the Agency. As an example he displayed country books issued by Life Magazine. He asked for analytic appraisal of these books. (DD/I -- status report by 19 November)
